BOUND COPIES

It is wasteful to keep your copies of ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY unbound. They get soiled, mislaid—or borrowed. Send two volumes to us with your check for $3.00, and we will return them to you neatly and strongly bound in blue buckram with gilt stamped morocco labels. Rates for binding more than two volumes (one binding) will be sent on request.

BOUND SPECIAL NUMBERS

We have on hand a few bound single copies of some of our great Special Numbers—Princeton, Baltimore, and Philadelphia.

While they last, $1.50 each, handsomely bound and lettered in gold leaf. Please remit with order to Book Department.

A volume that throws Spain open like a great museum to the art-lovers of the world

Forgotten Shrines of Spain

By MILDRED STAPLEY BYNE

Bewitched by the spell of fresco and carving, Mrs. Byne has gone "a-clustering" to Spain's forgotten shrines. She offers "glimpses of the Middle Ages petrified." Hardly a garden cloister but still hoards some precious bit of painting or quaint sculpture, saved from the spoliation of centuries. The melancholy beauty of these neglected garths with their maple and eypress about their ancient fountains, has crept into this book with immortal charm. Mrs. Byne is well known as an authority on Spanish art and history, a corresponding member of the Hispanic Society of America and author of many articles on Spain. Her new book is a veritable museum of Christian art, an eloquent page of national history and of human aspiration. It is a reference work of rich, obscure materials priceless for the bibliophile and the lover of art and history. Colored frontispiece and map with 67 photographs by Arthur Byne which transmit the beauty of this mediaeval hinterland of Spain to a degree unequalled in any other volume.

The Domestic Architecture of the Early American Republic

The Greek Revival

By HOWARD MAJOR, A. I. A.

Over two hundred and fifty exquisite examples of this peculiarly American style of architecture. Introduced a hundred years ago by Thomas Jefferson, it is today appealing with fresh interest to artists, architects and lovers of beautiful homes.
